2 INTRODUCTION

The Public Investment Corporation (PIC) is an asset management company wholly owned by the government of the Republic of South Africa duly represented by the Minister of Finance. The PIC manages investments on behalf of public sector funds which include Government Employees Pension Fund (GEPF), Unemployment Insurance Fund (UIF) and Compensation Fund.

Established in 1911, the PIC ranks amongst the best and most successful asset management firms in the world and is by far the biggest in Africa. The PIC runs one of the most diversified portfolios, which is made-up of multiple asset classes. These asset classes include listed equities, real estate, capital market, private equity and impact investing. Through listed investments, the PIC controls over 10% of the Johannesburg Stock Exchange and has direct and indirect exposure to almost all sectors of the South African economy. The corporation has a mandate to invest in the rest of the African continent and beyond. Over and above generating financial returns for clients, through its impact-investing programme, the PIC seeks to generate social returns by investing in projects that ensure inclusive growth. The PIC supports the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals and considers environmental, social and governance issues in all its investments.

The PIC manages assets exceeding R2trillion; and as the leader in the Asset Management industry, it thrives to meet and exceed its clients' expectations.

3 BACKGROUND

- 3.1. As part of the Records Management Strategy, the Records Management function of the PIC has a responsibility to establish business processes that will assist in the protection, securing and managing of the organisation's records in order to enable the achievement of strategic and operational objectives of the organisation.
- 3.2. As such, this RFP seeks to identify a suitably qualified and experienced Bidder to offer an off-site storage solution for the PIC's records.

3.3. The reason to acquire offsite storage is mainly due to the following reasons;

- Limitations of storage space.
- Storage space must comply with Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) Act regulations as well as National Archives Act regulations which provides for fire detection and prevention, HVAC, shelving and well as proper security requirements that outsourced companies comply with fully;
- The National Archives and Records Service (NARS) requires that the records should be stored in offsite facilities that were evaluated by the NARS as being suitable for all archival records of all Government Bodies;
- Storage of all PIC finalized files and backup tapes in a safe and accessible environment at a competitive tariff.

3.4. The scope of work for the off-site storage Solution comprises of the following services,

- Secure off-site storage of PIC records and alignment to the PIC file plan and retention schedules.
- Secure off-site storage of the backup tapes
- Disaster recovery plan and backup plans for documents stored off-site
- Retention management, archiving and disposal implementation plans and processes
- Records Management system to allow PIC access to the inventory of its records

The storage process entails receipt of files by the Service Provider, the indexing of the files, the storage of files and the retrieval of files from time to time.

4.2 Retrieval

The PIC shall be entitled, at its discretion, to require retrieval of records to take place either by way of:

- Hand delivery of the requested files

- Fetching of the files by the PIC driver
- The internet enabled retrieval and access to the repository of the PIC files

4.3 Destruction Services

The Service Provider shall against the receipt of written and/or electronically transmitted instruction from PIC destroy any of the files.

PIC shall be solely responsible for determining the date upon which files are destroyed.

4.4 Vault Services

The Service Provider shall provide a facility for the offsite storage of data backup computer disks, tapes, magnetic cartridges, optical disks and similar electronic records. Vault Services must also include storing of private and confidential files from Executive Management and the Board Secretariat. In order to ensure the confidentiality and safety of the electronic records and files stored in the vault facilities, only duly authorized PIC personnel will handover/receive the electronic records/files on behalf of PIC.

The Service Provider must ensure that it will store the electronic records in a secure, climate-controlled environment in order to protect the electronic media.

The Service Provider must provide emergency services to PIC in relation to the retrieval of records.

 - have failed to perform on any previous contract and the proof thereof exists; and/or
 - Is restricted from doing business with the public sector if such a bidder obtained preferences fraudulently or if such bidder failed to perform on a contract based on the specific goals.

8.3 Cancellation of Bid

The PIC may prior to the award of a bid, cancel a bid for the following reasons -

- due to changed circumstances, there is no longer a need for the goods or services requested;
- funds are no longer available to cover the total envisaged expenditure;
- no acceptable bids are received.

The PIC may after award of the tender but before conclusion of a contract, cancel a bid for the following reasons-

- due to change of circumstances, there is no longer a need for the goods or services requested;
- funds are no longer available to cover the total envisaged expenditure.

8.4 Clarifications

Any clarification required by a bidder regarding the meaning or interpretation of the document, or any other aspect concerning the submission, is to be requested in writing e-mail to tenders@pic.gov.za .

8.5 Receipt of Bids

Each bid shall be in writing using non-erasable ink and shall be submitted on the official document of Bid issued with the bid documents. The bid shall be submitted in a separate sealed envelope with the name and address of the bidder, the bid number and title, the bid box number (where applicable), and the closing date indicated on the envelope. The envelope shall not contain documents relating to any bid other than that shown on the envelope.

The onus shall be on the bidder to place the sealed envelope in the official marked locked bid box provided for this purpose, at the designated venue, not later than the closing date and time specified in the bid notice.

Postal bids will be accepted for consideration only if they are received in sufficient time to be lodged in the appropriate bid box by the closing time for such bids, it being understood that PIC disclaims any responsibility for ensuring that such bids are in fact lodged in the bid box. Proof of posting of a bid will not be accepted as proof of delivery to the appropriate place for the receipt of bids. Documents submitted on time by bidders shall not be returned and shall remain the property of the PIC.

8.6 Late Bids

Bids received late shall not be considered. A bid will be considered late if arrived only one second after 11h00 or any time thereafter. The tender box shall be locked at exactly 11h00. Bids received late shall be returned unopened. Bidders are therefore strongly advised to ensure that bids be despatched allowing enough time for any unforeseen events that may delay the delivery of the bid.

8.7 Presentations

The PIC may require presentations at a stipulated date and time from short-listed bidders as part of the bid process.

8.8 Service Level Agreement (SLA)

The SLA will set out the administration processes, service levels and timelines.

The award of a tender shall always be subject to successful negotiation and conclusion of an SLA / contract. There will be no binding agreement between the parties if a contract has not been concluded.

8.9 Contracting

Bidders are advised that a valid contract will only come into existence between the PIC and the successful bidder after conclusion of successful negotiations and signature of the Contract by both parties' respective delegated authorities.

See ANNEXURE for Contracting terms and conditions.

(Registration Number 2005/009094/06)

(“PIC”)

AND

(Identity Number / Registration Number: _____)

(Hereinafter referred to as the parties.)

Introduction

1. The parties wish to record the terms and conditions upon which each shall disclose confidential information to the other, which terms and conditions shall constitute a binding and enforceable agreement between the parties and their agents.

- 2 This agreement shall also bind the parties, notwithstanding the date of signature hereof, in the event that either party shall have disclosed any confidential information to the other party prior to date of signature hereof.

3. For the purposes of this agreement the party which discloses confidential information shall be referred to as “the disclosing party” and the party which receives the confidential information shall be referred to as “the receiving party”.

The Confidential Information

4. "Confidential Information" shall, for the purpose of this agreement include, without limitation, any technical, commercial or scientific information, know-how, trade secrets, processes, machinery, designs, drawings, technical specifications, terms of agreements, details of investment strategies, organisational strategies or structure of either party, products or services offered by either party or any other matter which relates to the business of either party in respect of which information is not readily available in the normal course of business which may come to the knowledge of the other party in whatever form, disclosed to or assessed by either party during the course of his relationship with the other party.

Disclosure of confidential information

5. The disclosing party shall only disclose the confidential information to the receiving party to the extent deemed necessary or desirable by the disclosing party in its discretion.

6. The receiving party acknowledges that the confidential information is a valuable, special and unique proprietary asset to the disclosing party.

7. The receiving party agrees that it will not, during or after the course of their relationship and/or the term of this agreement as described in Clause 17, disclose the information to any third party for any reason or purpose whatsoever without the prior written consent of the disclosing party, save in accordance with the provisions of this agreement. In this agreement “third party” means any party other than the parties.

8. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this agreement the parties agree that the confidential information may be disclosed by the receiving party to other related parties on a need-to-know basis; provided that that party takes whatever steps are necessary to procure that such other related parties agree to abide by the terms of this agreement to prevent the unauthorised disclosure of the confidential information to third parties. For purposes of this clause, the receiving party’s other related parties and employees, directors or managers shall be deemed to be acting, in the event of a breach, as that party’s duly authorised agents.

9. The receiving party agrees:
 - 9.1 not to utilise, exploit or in any other manner whatsoever use the confidential information disclosed pursuant to the provisions of this agreement for any purpose whatsoever without the prior written consent of the disclosing party;

- 9.2 that the unauthorized disclosure of the confidential information to a third party may cause irreparable loss, harm and damage to the disclosing party. Accordingly, the receiving party indemnifies and holds the disclosing party harmless against any loss, claim, harm or damage, of whatever nature, suffered or sustained by the disclosing party pursuant to a breach by the receiving party of the provisions of this agreement.

Title

10. All confidential information disclosed by the disclosing party to the receiving party is acknowledged by the receiving party:

10.1 to be proprietary to the disclosing party; and

10.2 not to confer any rights to the receiving party of whatever nature in the confidential information.

Restrictions on disclosure and use of the confidential information

11. The receiving party undertakes not to use the confidential information for any purpose other than:

11.1 that for which it is disclosed; and

11.2 in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

Standard of care

12. The receiving party agrees that it shall protect the confidential information disclosed pursuant to the provisions of this agreement using the same standard of care that the receiving party applies to safeguard its own proprietary, secret or confidential information and that the information shall be stored and handled in such a way as to prevent any unauthorised disclosure thereof.

Return of material containing or pertaining to the confidential information

13. The disclosing party may, at any time, request the receiving party to return any material containing, pertaining to or relating to confidential information disclosed pursuant to the terms of this agreement and may, in addition request the receiving party to furnish a written statement to the effect that, upon such return, the receiving party has not retained in its possession, or under its control, either directly or indirectly, any such material.

14. As an alternative to the return of the material contemplated in clause 13 above, the receiving party shall, at the instance of the disclosing party, destroy such material and furnish the disclosing party with a written statement to the effect that all such material has been destroyed. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, the receiving party will be entitled to retain such documents as they are reasonably required to retain in order to fulfil their professional obligation with regard to document retention, imposed on them by the professional body of which they are a member.

15. The receiving party shall comply with a request in terms of this clause, within 7 (seven) days of receipt of such a request.

Excluded confidential information

16. The obligations of the receiving party pursuant to the provisions of this agreement shall not apply to any confidential information that:
- 16.1 is known to, or in the possession of the receiving party prior to disclosure thereof by the disclosing party;
- 16.2 is or becomes publicly known, otherwise than as a result of a breach of this agreement by the receiving party;
- 16.3 is developed independently of the disclosing party by the receiving party in circumstances that do not amount to a breach of the provisions of this agreement;
- 16.4 is disclosed by the receiving party to satisfy an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or to comply with the provisions of any law or regulation in force from time to time; provided that in these circumstances, the receiving party shall advise the disclosing party to take whatever steps it deems necessary to protect its interests in this regard and provided further that the receiving party will disclose only that portion of the information which it is legally required to disclose and the receiving party will use its reasonable endeavours to protect the confidentiality of such information to the greatest extent possible in the circumstances;
- 16.5 is disclosed to a third party pursuant to the prior written authorisation of the disclosing party;

- 16.6 is received from a third party in circumstances that do not result in a breach of the provisions of this agreement.

Term

17. Subject to clause 2 this agreement shall commence upon the date of signature of the last signing party hereto ("the effective date") and shall endure for a period of 12 (twelve) months ("the term") thereafter, or for a period of one year from the date of the last disclosure of confidential information to the receiving party, whichever is the longer period, whether or not the parties continue to have any relationship for that period of time. In the event that the parties extend the term by mutual and written agreement, then the provisions hereof shall endure for a further minimum period of 12 (twelve) months mutatis mutandis.

No Solicit

18. Both parties agree that they will not solicit, interfere with, or entice or endeavour to solicit, interfere with or entice away from the other party, any employee or consultant of the other party, or of either parties consultant(s) or sub-contractor, for the duration of this agreement.

Additional Action

19. Each party to this agreement shall execute and deliver such other documents and do such other acts and things as may be necessary or desirable to give effect to the terms and provisions of this agreement.

Breach

20. In the event that the receiving party should breach the provisions of this agreement and fail to remedy such breach within 7 (seven) days from date of a written notice to do so, then the disclosing party shall be entitled to invoke all remedies available to it in law including the institution of urgent interim proceedings and/or an action for damages.

Amendments

21. No amendment, interpretation or waiver of any of the provisions of this agreement shall be effective unless reduced in writing and signed by both parties.

Enforcement

22. The failure by the disclosing party to enforce or to require the performance at any time of any of the provisions of this agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver of such provision, and shall not affect either the validity of this agreement or any part hereof or the right of the disclosing party to enforce the provisions of this agreement.

Headings

23. The headings of the clauses of this agreement are used for convenience only and shall not affect the meaning or construction of the contents of this agreement.

Representations & Warranties

24. Each party represents that it has authority to enter into this agreement and to do all things necessary to procure the fulfilment of its obligations in terms of this agreement.

Entire agreement

25. This agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter of this agreement and supersedes all prior agreements between the parties, whether written or oral, with respect to the subject matter of this agreement.

Governing law

26. This agreement and the relationship of the parties in connection with the subject matter of this agreement and each other shall be governed and determined in accordance with the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

Submission

27. The parties hereby submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Northern - Gauteng High Court.

ANNEXURE D

Contracting

- Bidders are advised that a valid contract will only come into existence between the PIC and the successful bidder after conclusion of successful negotiations and signature of the Contract by both parties' respective delegated authorities.

Key contractual principles that successful bidders must note for the final contract are as follows:

- Duration

Contracts will be for a fixed period. There will be no auto-renewals renewals.

- Limitation of Liability

The limitation of liability is subject to negotiation and will be informed by the contract value and risk associated with the contract.

Ownership of Data

The PIC shall retain ownership of the Data and all Intellectual Property Rights in and to all the Data.

Termination of Convenience

PIC requires a clause addressing termination of convenience

Governing Law

The PIC preferred Governing Law of the Contract between the parties is the law of the Republic of South Africa. In the event that the parties cannot agree on South African law, the PIC will accept the law of England.

Warranty

The Successful Bidder warrants that it:

- is authorised to enter into an Agreement and able to perform each of its duties in terms of the Agreement;
- is suitably qualified to provide the Services;
- is registered with the relevant industry body and its employees have the required certification and licences; and
- has public liability insurance cover commensurate with the risks to which it is exposed for the Term of the Agreement. Documentary proof of such insurance cover is to be provided to on or before the Date of Signature.

The Bidder shall provide the Services:

- with due care and skill;
- in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; and
- in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

The Bidder further warrants and guarantees that:

- the Services shall be rendered and executed in a professional manner in accordance with the standards agreed between the Parties and expected in the relevant industry; and
- the personnel tasked with rendering the Services have completed the requisite formal training and have the expertise to execute their functions properly, in particular regarding but not limited to:
- the execution of their Services, having regard for the legal aspects thereof;

Data Storage

The Successful Bidder must disclose where the data is stored. PIC requires data to be stored in the Republic of South Africa or an EU jurisdiction.

Exit Management

If this Agreement is terminated in whole or in part for any reason whatsoever the provisions of the exit management plan agreed (if any) between the Parties shall come into effect and in any event, including where no agreed exit management plan exists, the Supplier shall co-operate fully with the PIC to ensure an orderly migration of the Services to the PIC or, at the PIC's request, a new supplier (an Orderly Migration). Without limiting the foregoing, the PIC shall be entitled to require the Supplier to continue to provide the Services for up to [6 (six)] months after the effective date of the termination of this Agreement on the same payment terms if, in the opinion of the PIC, such continuation is required in order to allow for an Orderly Migration. Co-operation by the Supplier shall include (without limitation), at the PIC's election, the provision by the Supplier of such personnel, equipment, resources, software, documentation, training and consultancy as may reasonably be required to enable an Orderly Migration and the return of the PIC's data in the manner, timeframes and a form and format specified by the PIC.
